13. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: HENRIETTA PRICE
CASE NUMBER: 3:15-CR-00519-L(4)

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

The defendant shall participate in the Location Monitoring Program for a period of 180 consecutive days. During this time, the defendant is continuously restricted to his/her place of residence except for authorized absences approved in advance by his/her U.S. Probation Officer. The U.S. Probation Officer may approve absences for gainful employment, religious services, medical care, education and training programs, and other activities. Location monitoring may be used to monitor compliance with this special condition and may include remote location monitoring using Global Positioning Satellite (GPS) tracking. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of the monitoring services rendered (copayment) at a rate of at least 3.30 per day, not to exceed the total cost per day of the monitoring services.

Pursuant to the Mandatory Victims Restitution Act of 1996, the defendant is ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $199,796.93, joint and several with Larry Washington (01) for $13,046.46, payable to the U.S. District Clerk, 1100 Commerce Street, Room 1452, Dallas, Texas 75242. Restitution shall be payable immediately and any unpaid balance shall be payable during incarceration. Restitution shall be disbursed to:

Department of Labor, Office of Worker's Compensation Program

To be apportioned as follows:

$24,894.70 (Army)

$77,960.76 (USPS)

$96,941.47 (VA)

If upon commencement of the term of supervised release any part of the restitution remains unpaid, the defendant shall make payments on such unpaid balance in monthly installments of not less than 10 percent of the defendant's gross monthly income, or at a rate of not less than $50 per month, whichever is greater. Payment shall begin no later than 60 days after the defendant's release from confinement and shall continue each month thereafter until the balance is paid in full. In addition, at least 50 percent of the receipts received from gifts, tax returns, inheritances, bonuses, lawsuit awards, and any other receipt of money shall be paid toward the unpaid balance within 15 days of receipt. This payment plan shall not affect the ability of the United States to immediately collect payment in full through garnishment, the Treasury Offset Program, the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, the Federal Debt Collection Procedures Act of 1990 or any other means available under federal or state law. Furthermore, it is ordered that interest on the unpaid balance is waived pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3).

The defendant shall provide to the probation officer complete access to all business and personal financial information.

The defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the business of Federal Health Care Programs without the probation officer's approval.
